Kia ora koutou!

For some of you, this will be the last newsletter for your child's primary school education – an end of an era for many of our families who have made St Joseph's School their home for the past 8 years. To those of you in this scenario may I thank you for your involvement in our school community and wish you the best of luck in your future education adventures.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the staff for all their work this year. Our staff do a wonderful job and it is a privilege to work with them all. Thanks also to the Board of Trustees who work hard to provide effective governance and do a great amount of 'behind the scenes' work to ensure our children get the best deal at school. The Friends of St Joseph's School - FOSS have donated almost $20,000.00 this year to the school. Many of you may not be aware the extent of what is funded through their fundraising efforts.

This is truly a community school with a heart of faith. A school where parents and families are interested and invested in supporting their child's learning. Thanks for your support this year. I wish you all a happy and safe holiday and a happy new year – whatever you are doing over the Christmas break, I hope you enjoy yourself and have some quality time with your family and friends.

Have a great Christmas and a happy new year. We look forward to seeing you all back at school safe and ready to learn in early February.

The season of advent

Santa is coming! This is the reminder for our tamariki that Christmas is upon us. They see their parents stocking up on delicious food for Christmas dinner and joining the massive queues within busy malls to buy presents to wrap and store under the Christmas tree in preparation for Christmas Day.

Please also allow your children to think about, and see, what really matters at this time of year? As the Grinch recognised so nicely for us in the movie

"What if Christmas, he thought, doesn't come from a store. What if Christmas... perhaps... means a little bit more!" — Dr. Seuss,

During the four weeks of Advent, we prepare for the celebration of Christ's birth through prayer and reflection and we look for practical ways to observe the holiness of the season in our everyday lives.

I ngā wiki e whā o te Aweneti, mā te karakia me te whakaaroaro ka whakariterite tātou i a tatou mō te kaupapa nui, arāte whānautanga mai o te Karaiti, āia rā, ia rā ka rapu tatou I ngā tikanga hei whakanui I tēnei wātapu.

Christmas is a time for us to gather as a Christian family to celebrate the coming of God. In the rush to make it a memorable occasion for those we love we can sometimes forget that Jesus is the reason for the season. God loves us so much that he sent his own Son to live among us, in order to show us how to live life to its fullest. So as we get ready for this special time, let us take time to prayerfully prepare to welcome Christ among us.

St Joseph's Parish and School Mass

On Sunday, we celebrated our final Parish and School Mass for the year. It was a most special occasion - one in which we were able to reflect upon the events of the year, from both a personal and worldly perspective. Our Mass also heralded the first day of the Advent Season and the Church's New Liturgical Year. The Gospel reading on Sunday challenged us to 'stay awake' and represent our faith in action, in a way that helps to make our world a better place for all to live in, especially those in less fortunate circumstances than ourselves.

Advent: The coming of the Lord

Adventus means "coming." At Sunday's Mass we experienced the wonderment of Hope. In the weeks ahead, we will celebrate and contemplate Advent through the transactions of Preparation, Joy and Love; all in anticipation of the birth of Our Saviour in a modest stable in the little town of Bethlehem.

In preparation for this week's newsletter, I encountered a reflection from Pope Francis, delivered to a General Audience in Saint Peter's Square in December, 2013. Francis' reflection captures the 'gift' of Jesus - the gift of love that transforms us.

"Today I would like to reflect with you on the birth of Jesus, the feast of trust and of hope which overcomes uncertainty and pessimism. And the reason for our hope is this: God is with us and God still trusts us. Hence the great 'gift' of the child of Bethlehem: He brings us a spiritual energy, an energy which helps us not to despair in our struggle, in our hopelessness, in our sadness, for it is an energy that warms and transforms the heart. Indeed, the birth of Jesus brings us the good news that we are loved immensely and uniquely by God, and he not only enables us to know this love, he also gives it to us, he communicates it to us!"

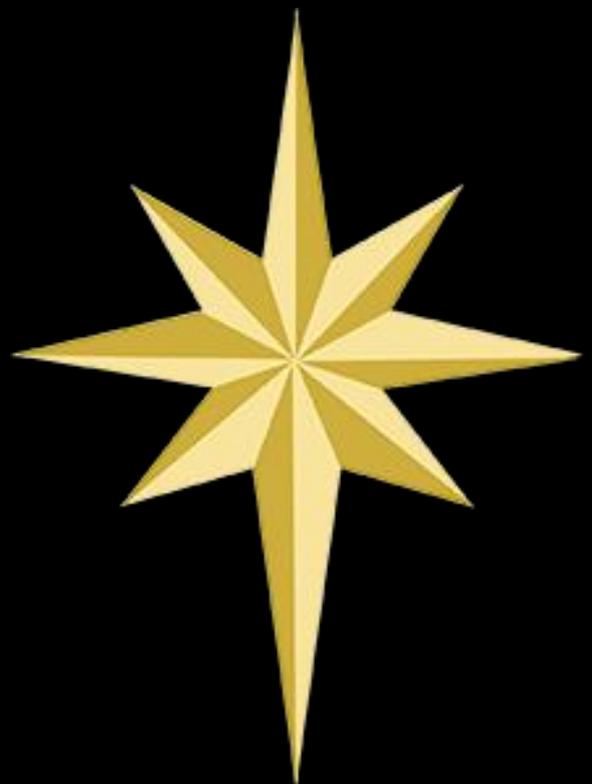

This Advent, may the Light of Faith be Our Star.

May you and your families remain in Christ and enjoy the Advent Season

Ma te Atua tatou e manaaki e arahi e tiaki I nga wa katoa

May God bless, guide and protect us always
