

Prayers of the Faithful for the Feast of Corpus Christi, June 13th & 14th, 2020

- Priest: As we bring our prayers to the Father, let us remember his never ending loving providence for each of us.
- Lector: We pray that, as Moses led the Israelites in the desert, we may be safely led by our leaders of today – Pope Francis and Cardinal John,
(pause briefly¹)
Lord, hear us.
- Lector: We pray that international leaders will learn to live together in harmony rather than fighting over the imagined differences between each other,
(pause briefly)
Lord, hear us.
- Lector: We rejoice in the progress made so far in combatting Covid-19, and pray that our team of 5 million will continue to pull together in keeping our country free of the virus,
(pause briefly)
Lord, hear us.
- Lector: We pray that as we eat the one bread at the altar, we may learn to accept and embrace each other because of our differences rather than stand apart because we differ,
(pause briefly)
Lord, hear us.
- Priest: We offer these petitions, Lord God, in the name of your son, Jesus.
Amen.
